PATENT(ii) Correct Patent Term Adjustment

Applicants respectfully submit that the correct patent term adjustment is 656 days, and not 241 days as indicated by the Office in the Determination of Patent Term Extension under 35 U.S.C. 154(b) that accompanied the Notice of Allowance.

(iii) Rules for the Calculation of Patent Term Adjustment

According to 37 CFR 7.703(a) the period of Patent Term Adjustment shall consist of, inter alia, the total number of days that the Patent Office mails an Office Action or a Notice of Allowance either in excess of fourteen months after filing date, as specified in 37 CFR 1.703(a)(1), or in excess of four months after filing a response, as specified in 37 CFR 1.703(a)(2)-(3). Further, the amount of Patent Term Adjustment should be reduced by the number of days during which the Applicant "failed to engage in reasonable efforts to conclude prosecution." Such failure consist of, inter alia, the cumulative difference between the mailing date of an Office Action and the filing date of a reply in excess of three months, as specified in 37 CFR 1.704(b), as well as the cumulative difference between the filing of a reply or an incomplete reply, and the filing date of the corrected or supplemental reply, as specified in 37 CFR 1.704(c)(7)-(8)

(v) Calculation of Patent Term Adjustment
